

THOMAS RICHARDS

EDUCATION:

State University of New York at Fredonia, Fredonia, NY; 1991 - Bachelor of Arts in Anthropology

CONTINUING EDUCATION AND TRAINING

- The Science of Corrosion-BASF 2010
- Erosion and Sediment Control – NYS DEC 2009
- 40 Hour HAZWOPER certified 2008
- Calorimetry of Concrete 2008
- Practical Steel Design 2-20 Stories 2005

CERTIFICATION:

- Certified Welding Inspector – American Welding Society, November 2004
- Ultrasonic Testing of Welds – Level I, 2002
- American Concrete Institute – Level I, 1995
- Campbell Pacific Nuclear – Radiation Safety Training, 1995

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

- Barron & Associates, P.C.: (1995 - Present)

Project Manager. Responsible for oversight of the construction monitoring and materials testing program. Direct supervision of engineering technicians involved in multiple projects which encompass laboratory soil evaluation and classification, earthwork and controlled fill placement, and foundation construction. Compile reports relating to all field testing and construction monitoring projects. Responsible for cost estimate proposals, cost management, project scheduling, and marketing. Some notable project involvement includes: The Home Depot stores in Cheektowaga, Buffalo, Batavia, Ithaca, and Poughkeepsie, New York.