

Thomas J. Hattala, P.E.

EDUCATION

Rochester Institute of Technology Rochester, NY 1976
Broome Community College, Binghamton, NY 1973

Bachelor in Civil Engineering
Associate in Civil Engineering

CONTINUING EDUCATION AND TRAINING

LEED Design Accreditation Seminar - 2005
OSHA 30 hour Occupational Safety And Health Training Course – 2006
Association for Bridge Construction and Design Lessons Learned – 2007
ADSC Micropile Design & Construction Seminar - 2008

REGISTRATIONS AND AFFILIATIONS

New York State Licensed Professional Engineer
State of Arizona Licensed Class A General Engineering
Federal Government Certified Stack Emission Tester, Certified July 22, 1977
American Society of Civil Engineers
New York State Society of Professional Engineers
Association for Bridge and Construction Design
The International Association of Foundation Design
Deep Foundation Institute

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Buffalo Drilling Company, Inc. October 2006 – Present

Project Manager responsible for daily operations, marketing, scheduling, estimating, purchasing and site investigations for services provided including geotechnical engineering, test drilling, monitoring wells, soldier piles, micropiles, anchors, and stabilization grouting.

Strock Enterprises Inc. 2004 – 2006

Benderson Development Co., Inc, 2000 – 2004

Baker Heavy & Highway, Inc. 1997 – 2000

Birmingham Construction 1995 – 1997

M. Falgiano Construction Co., Inc. 1989 – 1995

Amadori Construction 1977 – 1989

Responsibilities included all operational facets for Construction of Bridges, Roadways, Strip Plazas, Site Development, Sewer Lines and Pump Stations for various municipalities, NYSDOT, NYSTA, and private investors.